Tartu College is pleased to announce the publication of

UNFORCED FLOURISHING
Understanding Jaan Kaplinski
By Thomas Salumets

An introduction to Estonia’s internationally best-known writer and intellectual.

The first major study in English of one of Eastern Europe’s most important literary figures, Unforced Flourishing details Kaplinski’s embrace of that which is undifferentiated, intuitive, non-calculative, and natural in the modern world.

“Unforced Flourishing is a major advance in world literature research. Salumets’s discussion of ‘dissent’ and the poet’s relation to Soviet power is fresh and enlightening.”
Guntis Šmidchens, University of Washington

Thomas Salumets is associate professor of central, eastern, and northern European studies at the University of British Columbia.
